The Terrible Cigarette. There are several young men this city suffering more or less from the use of the deadly cigarette. One of the victims is a youth who has allowed the habit to get such a hold upon him that his sufferings at times are almost unbearable. He is never at ease, day or night, and when he falls into a doze his sleep is troubled with a frightful nightmare. This young man, it is said, is trying to shake off the habit, but finds it a difficult thing to do. The cigarette has about wrecked his constitution. There are a number of others said to be in almost as bad shape from the same cause. Just as surely as the cigarette is smoked to excess it will make you a wreck.
